

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR ON HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS

The attached pre-judgment or post-judgment process has been issued on request of the United States of America.

The law provides that certain property and wages cannot be taken. Such property is said to be exempted. This Notice lists the exemptions under federal law and your state law. There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If you claim an exemption, you should (i) fill out the claim for exemption form and (ii) deliver or mail the form to the Clerk's office of this Court and counsel for the United States. You have a right to a hearing within five business days, or as soon as practicable, from the date you file your claim with the Court.

If the United States of America as creditor is asking that your wages be withheld, the method of computing the amount of wages which are exempt from garnishment by law is indicated on the Claim for Exemption Form which is attached. You do not need to file a claim for exemption to receive this exemption, but if you believe the wrong amount is being withheld, you may file a claim for exemption.

On the day of the hearing, you should come to Court ready to explain why your property is exempted, and you should bring any documents which may help you prove your case. If you do not come to Court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights.

It may be helpful to you to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter.

CLAIM FOR EXEMPTION
MAJOR EXEMPTIONS UNDER FEDERAL LAW

- (g) ☐ Any unmaturred life insurance contract you own, other than credit life insurance.
- (h) ☐ The aggregate value, up to $9,850, of any accrued dividend or interest under, or loan value of, any unmaturred life insurance contract you own, but only if you are the insured or you are independent of the insured.
- (i) ☐ Professionally prescribed health aids for you or your dependants.
- (j) ☐ Unemployment compensation benefits, local public assistance benefits, disability benefits, illness benefits; and alimony, support, and separate maintenance, to the extent these items are reasonably necessary for your support or the support of your dependants.
- (k) ☐ A payment under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, annuity, or similar plan or contract on account of illness, disability, death, age, or length of service, to the extent reasonably necessary for your support or the support of your dependants, subject to the limitations set forth at Title 11 United States Code Section 522(d)(1)(E)(i)-(iii).
- (l) ☐ Your right to receive, or property that is traceable to,
  - an award under a crime victim's reparation law;
  - a payment on account of the wrongful death of an individual of whom you were a dependant, but only to the extent reasonably necessary for your support or the support of your dependants;

- a payment under a life insurance contract that insured an individual of whom you were a dependant on the date of the insured's death, but only to the extent reasonably necessary for your support or the support of your dependants;
- a payment, not to exceed $18,450, on account of personal bodily injury suffered by you or by an individual of whom you are a dependant; however, payment for pain and suffering or payment to compensate actual pecuniary loss are not exempt under this paragraph;
- a payment in compensation of loss of your future earnings or the future earnings of an individual of whom you are, or were, a dependant, but only to the extent reasonably necessary for your support or the support of your dependants.
